The GINGKO LEAF

1952

Published by the

SENIOR CLASS OF HALSTED SCHOOL

- Doris La Porte -

Preface

We, the staff of the 1952 "Gingko Leaf," because of our departure come June, have tried to relate our undergraduate days at Halsted as graphically as possible. As we have lived it; we have recorded it. When we leave Halsted, the ideals and teachings which we have gained throughout our years there shall guide and follow us throughout the rest of our lives.

Dedication to
Mr. Samuel E. Jones

We, the senior class of 1952 do most fondly dedicate our yearbook "The Gingko Leaf," to Mr. Samuel E. Jones, who, though he is a new member of the Halsted faculty and of the school life, fitted into our Halsted pattern from the very first moment of his entrance here.

We will always remember Mr. Jones as a sincere and understanding friend, who, as homeroom teacher, helped us out whenever possible and proved to be not only a great companion, but an inspiration to us all.

S. E. Jones

Mrs. Ruth S. Leonard

To the Class of 1952

You will long be remembered at Halsted. The nucleus of your class was together in the Sixth Grade and grew and flourished increasingly through Junior and Senior High School. You developed leaders of high quality, who have accepted every worthwhile challenge. We have confidence that you will continue to be effective leaders in college and in your role as citizens of the future.

Senior Class
1952

Ann P. Affleck

Annie

Treasurer of Class 2; Dramatic Club 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Library Committee 1, 2; Chairman of Library Committee 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis 1, 2, 3; Cheerleader 1, 2; Captain of Cheering Squad 3; Senior Play.

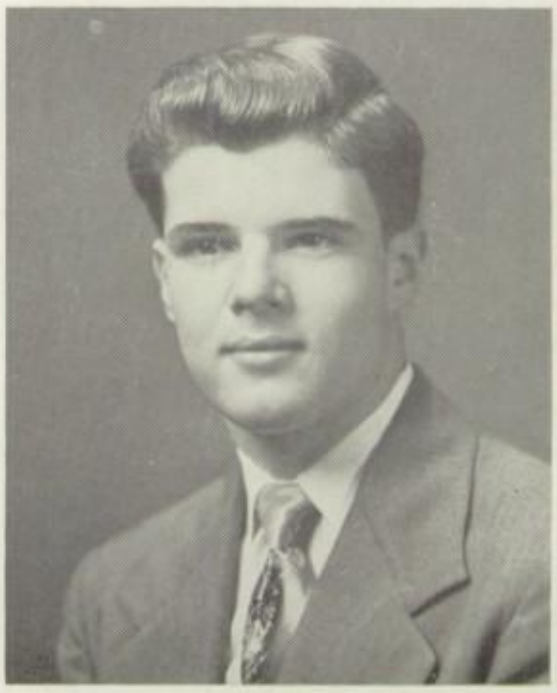
Ann is our little unpredictable one and has added a lot of laughs to our days at Halsted. She's done a swell job with the library and we all appreciate it. She enjoys all sports and is quite a sly one at basketball. Tennis is another one of her favorites. What Ann will do in the future is hard to tell but in any case she will make a good wife for some lucky fellow.

R. Hibbard Affleck

Hib, Mandrake

Art Club 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Service Committee 1, 2, 3; Chairman of Service Committee 4; J. V. Basketball 1, 2; Basketball 3, 4; Tennis 3; Vice-President of Class 4; Literary Editor of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

Hibby has always been a source of laughter in the past years and we feel he'll always have a witty streak in him. His participance in social functions and his likable personality has made him a glad member of our class. We've known him to be factual and long-winded—could be he'll be a politician.



Jane H. Affleck

Janie

Treasurer of Class 1; President of Class 3; Newspaper Committee 1; Social Committee 2; Chairman of Social Committee 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Cheerleader 1; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis 1, 2, 3; Assistant Editor of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

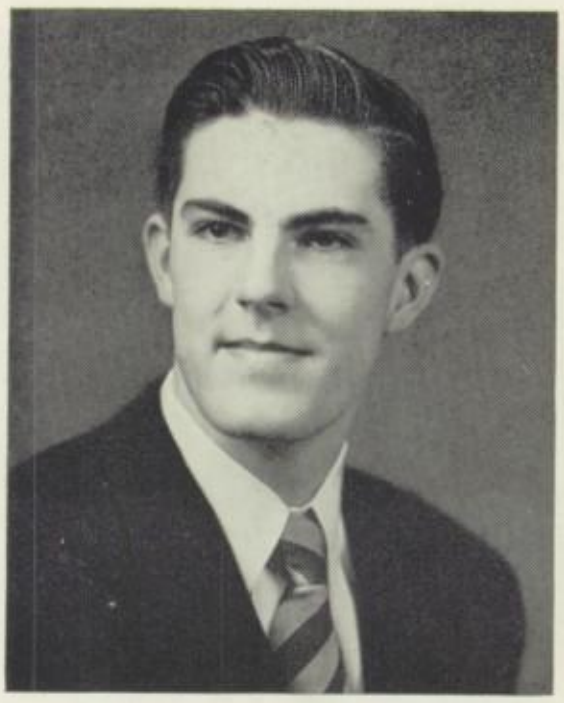
Janie always has a smile and a kind word for everyone. She has done much for Halsted and we will never forget her. Besides being a top-notch athlete, she has also mastered the piano. She has worked assiduously on school social functions and has proven a great asset in any field that she enters. We expect Jane to really go places in the coming years, for she possesses the initiative, spirit, looks and charm to acquire her goal.

Charles J. Aitcheson

Charlie

Service Committee 1, 2; Public Relations Committee 3; Chairman of Public Relations Committee 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; J.V. Basketball 2; Basketball 3; President of Class 4; Editor of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Stage Manager of Senior Play.

Charlie has been our Yearbook Editor and a swell one, at that. He's a hard worker as Class President, too. Charlie is already a man of the world and there is no doubt that he will be a great doctor, for that is his ambition. Charlie has also added to Halsted's sports world. The class would find it hard to get along without him and we're all going to miss him after graduation.



E. Lorraine Appleyard

Lorrie

Assembly Committee 1; Girls' Athletic Committee 2; Chairman of Girls' Athletic Committee 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 3; Cheerleader 2, 3; Captain of Cheering Squad 4; Business Manager of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

Lorraine is our own French expert. Besides being the girls' wittiest wit, she is also a hard, capable worker and has done much for the Senior Class. Her athletic ability rates high and we will always remember her as a source of enjoyment whenever we needed a boosting up. We all think Lorrie is an all-round girl.

Frank J. Ardanowski

Frank

Boys' Athletic Committee 4; Football 4; Basketball 4; Baseball 4; Senior Play.

"Where's Frank?"—"Where are the girls?" That was life at Halsted for our Francois. There was never a dull moment when Frank was around for he, in his own humorous way, would liven the class up. Although Frank was new this year, he has proven himself a great sportsman, humorist and woman chaser in the little time that he has spent with us.

Thomas P. Cahillane

Tom

Library Committee 4; Senior Play.

Our boy Tommy is a new face around Halsted this year. Coming from Bower Memorial Academy, he proved to be a hard worker with quite a gift for story telling. He is a member of the Library Committee and was in the senior play. Tom wishes to be a dairyman and we all believe he will make a good one.

Marilyn Carneol

Marilyn

Service Committee 4; Art Club 4; Softball 4; Senior Play.

Marilyn is a newcomer to the class this year but we feel we know her quite well. Her contribution to the history classes has kept the subject alive and interesting to us. Her studies prove that she is well prepared to face the outside world after graduation.

Carolyn E. Cline

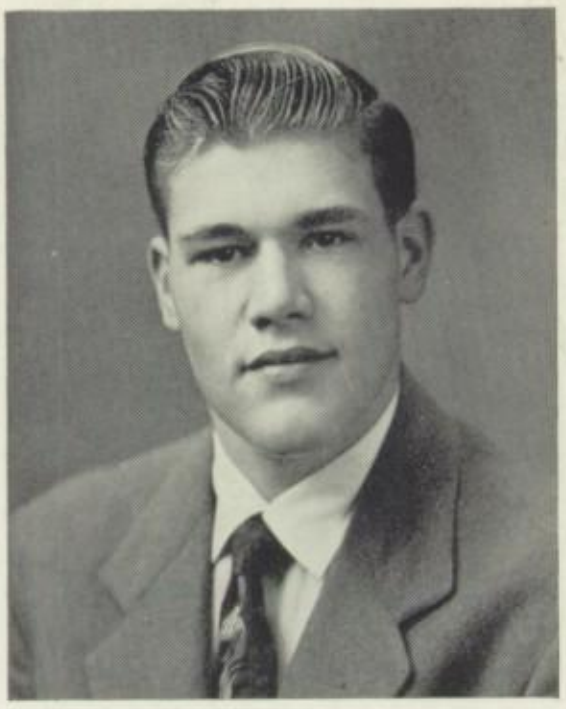
Lyn

Assembly Committee 1, 2; Social Committee 3, 4; Vice-President of Class 2; Dramatic Club 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 3, 4; Cheerleader 2; Co-Captain of Cheering Squad 3, 4; Secretary of Cabinet 4; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

Carolyn is one we shall all miss. Her wonderful personality has made her a great asset to our class. She has done a commendable job as secretary to the Student Cabinet and has contributed more than her share to social functions. Carolyn is also a necessary factor to the girls' sports teams, especially basketball. She says she wants to be a nurse and if that's the case, we are all sure she'll be a sympathetic and an understanding one.

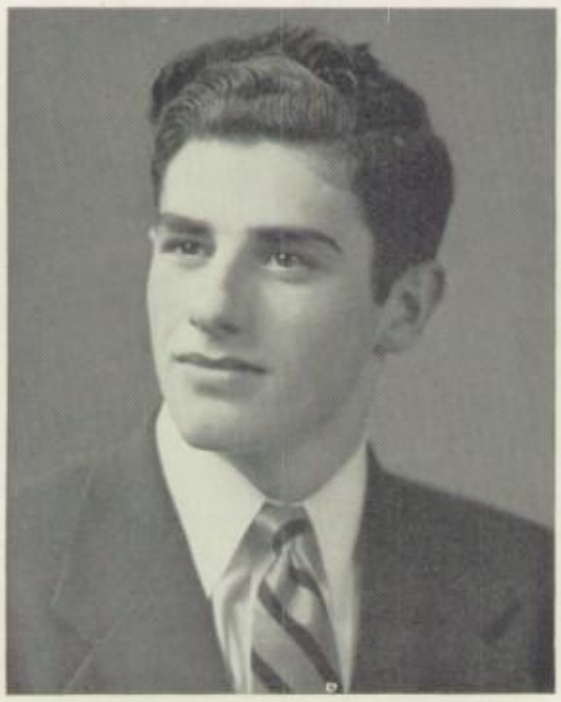
Raymond L. Darmstadt

Ray



Camera Club 1; Ice Skating 1, 2; Rifle Club 3; Service Committee 2; Library Committee 1, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Golf 3; Football 4; Treasurer of Class 4; "Joseph" in Christmas Vespers; Photography Editor of Yearbook; Business Manager of Senior Play.

Our own hopeful "Olympic Skiing Champ," Ray is one of Halsted's old-timers. He is Treasurer of the Senior class and has proven in many ways that he is an all-round fellow. We all admire his perseverance and accomplishments this last year and hope he will continue to be as efficient as always.



Alfred B. DelBello

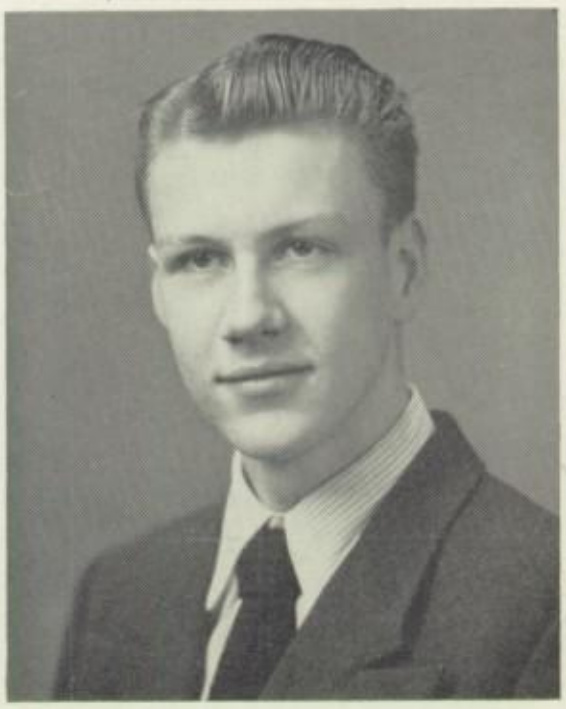
Al

Camera Club 1; Ice Skating 1, 2; Service Committe 3; President of Class 2; Football 2, 3, 4; J. V. Basketball 1; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; President of Student Cabinet 4; Boys' Sports Editor of Yearbook; Senior Play.

Al has been a wonderful credit to our class. He has been a fine leader as President of the Student Cabinet and his athletic ability has made him indispensable to the team. He has been the spark of every team and our prediction is that Al will really go places in the world of sports. Al's mind for math and science assures us too that he will be a success in whatever he does in the years to come.

David N. Dreier

Dave



Assembly Committee 4; Glee Club 4; Senior Play.

Dave Dreier, our "California boy," has become a true member of our group since his arrival east to attend Halsted. He was voted "most talkative" for a good reason—that being he always has something interesting to talk about. We expect Dave will go places as he has the power to talk himself out of any kind of difficulty.

Mrs. LaPorte Sate of Luck
Our Biology course was swell
Dave

Dear Doris:
It has been
sweet knowing you.
The best of luck &
happiness always
Love
Bobbie

Barbara M. Klein

Bobbie

Assembly Committee 1, 2; Alumni Committee 3; Chairman of Alumni Committee 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader 3, 4; "Mary" in Christmas Vespers 4; Girls' Sports Editor of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

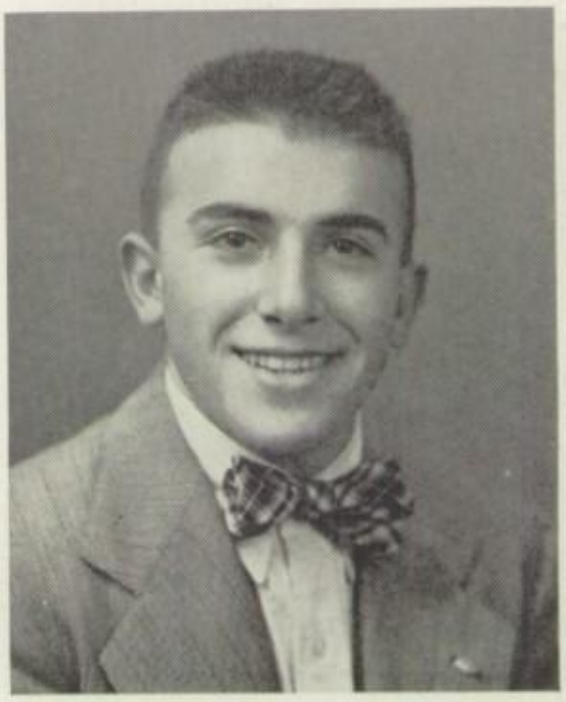
Barbara came to us as a freshman and has since been a true asset to the class. Her work as Chairman of the Alumni Committee has been deeply appreciated and she's done a fine job writing up the girls' sports for the Yearbook. Barbara is certain she wants to be a nurse and from her stories of the hospital, she should make any patient much happier.

Paul S. Knepfer

Paul, Barrel

Library Committee 1, 2; Boys' Athletic Committee 2, 3; Chairman of Boys Athletic Committee 4; Vice President of Class 3; Camera Club 1, 2; Dramatic Club 3; Rifle Club 3, 4; J. V. Baseball 1; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Advertising Manager of Yearbook; Senior Play.

Paul has done a swell job as Adverising Manager of this Yearbook. He's a business man all the way but that is far from saying that he's a quiet, intellectual fellow. On the contrary, he is a zip for fun and sports and we all give him full credit for it. Paul takes a lot of teasing but we know that with his originality, intellect, and wonderful personality, he will really go places.



Doris B. La Porte

Doris

Library Committee 4.

Doris is the only female vet we've had in Halsted and we feel pretty lucky to have her in our class. She is unable to be present at our social functions because she has a little girl in the nursery to take care of but we can always look forward to seeing a happy smile from Doris and we enjoy having her in our classes.

Dear Mrs. La Porte
Best of luck always.
Alex.

Alexander Markovich

Alex

Newspaper Committee 1, 2; Alumni Committee 3; Chairman of Newspaper Committee 4; Dramatic Club 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Secretary of Class 3, 4; Soloist in Christmas Vespers; J.V. Basketball 1, 3; Baseball 3; National Honor Society; Senior Play.

Alex, our musical one, receives full credit for his wonderful work on the newspaper. He has added musically to many of Halsted's ceremonies and we feel he will be a successful musician. Scholastically, he's a whiz and he can always laugh with the rest of us. With these qualities Alex has a successful future ahead of him.

To Doris,
The best of everything
to a swell girl.
Love,
Carol

Carol Pennington

Carol

Athletic Committee 1; Service Committee 1; Alumni Committee 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 4; Senior Play.

Carol is a studious one and quite a credit to the girls' varsity basketball team. We can tell that Carol will be successful in whatever she does for her conscientious work has made her prepared for the world to come. Her work on the Alumni Committee has been appreciated and we all wish her success.

Dear Dor.
It's been swell getting knowing you
Best of luck
Love
Jeannie

Jean L. Rathgeb

Jeannie

Secretary of Class 1; Assembly Committee 1, 2, 3; Chairman of Assembly Committee 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 3; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Softball 4; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Art Editor of Yearbook; National Honor Society; Costume Manager of Senior Play.

Jean, our future secretary has probably seen the most of our class, for she was the only girl in the class in the eighth grade. Knowing the class now, she must have had quite a rugged time. Jean has been in the tops with marks and will undoubtedly make some president a fine secretary. She has been with Halsted for a long time now and she is going to be missed after June 6th.

John F. Ryan

Jack, Jesse

Welfare Committee 3; Boys' Athletic Committee 4; Basketball 3, 4; Football 4; Baseball 3, 4; Senior Play.

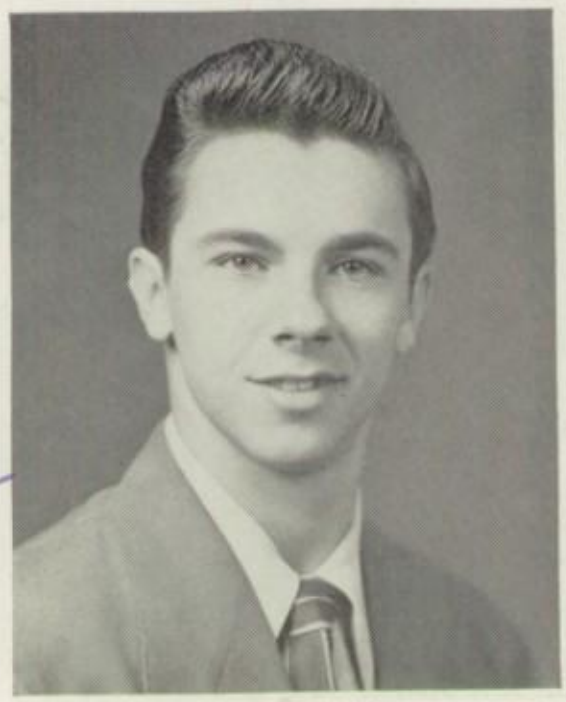
Jack—better known to us as Jesse—has been our class comedian. His wit has kept a happy atmospbere amongst us and we can always look forward to a beaming smile from him. His contribution to sports has made him a necessity to the teams. We know that with his likable personality and scholastic attitude, Jack will be a successful figure in years to come.

Jeanne Ann Siconolfi

Jeanne

Social Committee 3; Assembly Committee 4; Cheerleader 4; Softball 4; Senior Play.

Jeanne always has a smile for everyone. Her lively personality captures any and everyone and her spirit for fun is contagious. Jeanne has been at Halsted for a year and a half but she is so friendly that we all feel we've known her for years. Her future, whatever it may be, will undoubtedly be a successful and happy one.



Robert J. Tutoni

Bob

Libary Committee 4; Basketball 4; Baseball 4; Senior Play.

Bob joined our happy group at mid-semester and proved within a week that here was a boy to admire. Although only five-foot-three, he played in his first basketball game for Halsted and proved to be fast, capable and able on the court. He was high scorer in that game with eighteen points. Baseball will prove an even better showing. We all wish Bob the greatest success in the years to come.

Peter V. Wagner

Pete

Social Committee 4; Glee Club 4; Senior Play.

Pete came from Roosevelt to enroll in our Halsted School. He is a member of our Glee Club and was a top star of the Senior Play. The boys are envious of Pete in that he is the only boy at Halsted who owns a convertible car. Pete has a deep and understanding character and would no doubt make a great president some day.

I hope you enjoy yes Halsted because I enjoyed knowing you
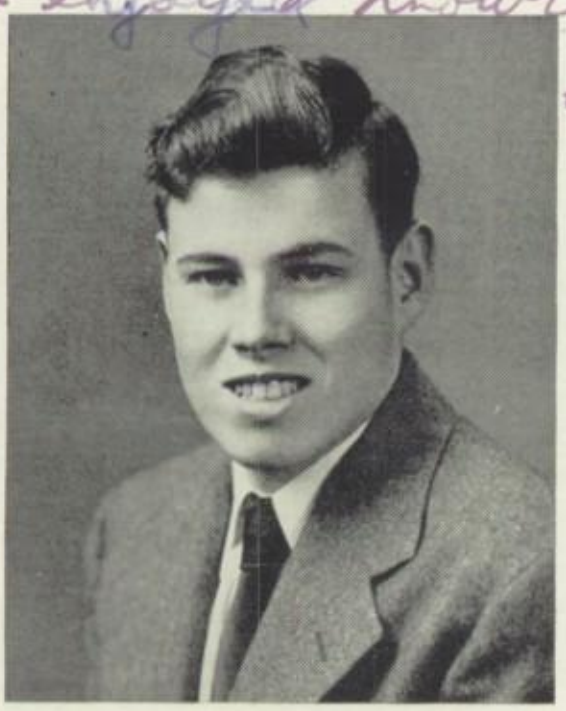
Dick
Walt



Richard B. Walters

Dick

Welfare Committee 3; Glee Club 4; Senior Play.

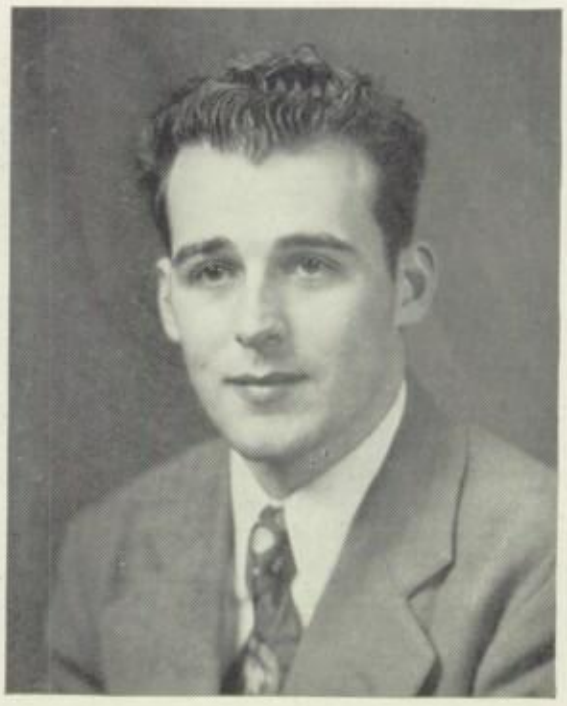
Our "petite garcon" is a real credit to Halsted. He does not let his size interfere with his "big man" jobs and ideas, thus proving size is no factor. We all expect Dick to perform great miracles in the coming years and hope that his "Lanza" singing voice will always ring true as it did in our own Glee Club.

John S. Wegener

John

Service Committee 4.

John was a new member of our class this year. He brought to school with him a new form of "hot rod"—it being a motorcycle. John has been a helpful member of the Service Committee and we are sure that our John will acquire a fine position in this world.



Eleanor M. Winters

Eleanor

Assembly Committee 4; Glee Club 4; Basketball 4; Softball 4; Senior Play.

Eleanor joined our happy crew at Halsted just this year and has fast become a loyal member. Her excellent athletic ability has made her a true asset to the girls' teams and her happy personality makes for a joyous environment. We know that Eleanor has the qualities for a good nurse, her foremost ambition

Senior Prophesy

The headlines blasted "U.N. Celebrates 20th Year—Originated '45." "Truman Dead From Long Illness After Republicans Took Office." Newsboys shouted the news on the corners of this great metropolis, N. Y. C. This is the year 1965 and, although war has slackened somewhat during the last ten years, the people of this world are still nervous due to the uncertain circumstances which face them. People run around like chickens with their heads cut off. In my life, neither the hurrying around nor the financial worries of life bothered me. You see, in my profession, I have little to say in the matter of what happens to me, although I see new people and places everyday. My life profession is that of making the rounds of N. Y. C. as a taxicab.

Why just the other day, I was cruising along in downtown N. Y. when two cars were approaching an intersection, one going east and the other west. The meeting of the two cars can be termed as a grand reunion, and I might add, it was the last meeting either car was ever to have again. I learned that the two drivers were Dave Dreier and Pete Wagner. This reunion was a double treat for they had not seen each other since the "good old school days at Halsted." It was funny that they hadn't met before, for both have been competing in Stock Car Racing.

As I sat there taking in the sight, an ambulance drove up next to me, in fact, just skinning me. I almost swallowed my spark plugs. This is New York though, and I suppose I'll have to become accustomed to it.

Well, who should jump out but Dr. Charles Aitcheson with his private nurse, Barbara Klein. Both looked very distinguished in their white uniforms and offered their assistance to both Dave and Pete. Charlie was now interning at the N. Y. Hospital and in a few years, planned to have his own practice. The two took the drivers up to the 3rd floor where Carolyn Cline, the ex-model-turned-nurse, was conversing with Eleanor Winters, another nurse. They cared for the two drivers during their stay there.

While cruising along one day, I saw an M.D. license plate in front of my grille work, and looking up with my big white eyes, saw the reflection of Carol Pennington through the mirror. She had a practice out in the country and was visiting on an emergency case. Marilyn Carneol was seated beside her with a small shild seated upon her lap. Marilyn was fast becoming the foremost psychologist of the nation.

You know, many people these days drive as if the finance company was after them—and it probably is. A car in St. Paul had a driver who refused to pay the bill after he'd had his auto pulled out of a swamp by a towing service;—so the service promptly returned the car to the scene and shoved it right back into the swamp. A typical car's life.

And so life rolled on, day after day, new faces to see and new places to go. One day I was sent on a trip to the U.N. Building where I was to pick up Lorraine Appleyard, the French interpreter, and drive her to Trygve Lie's home for a social gathering. By being a French interpreter, Lorraine was meeting some of the most important people in the world.

One sunny day my door was flung open and in jumped the famous concert pianist, Alex Markovich, who directed me to the Metropolitan Opera House, where he was giving an appearance. From the opposite side, a young looking Jerry Lewis with his partner, popped into the car. This was an understatement for they proved to be Jesse Ryan and Frank Ardanowski, the celebrated comedians of stage, screen, and radio. I really felt proud having such celebrities inside me and I cruised along at a comfortable, moderate speed, letting all my kinsfolk take a good look at my occupants. After dropping them off at their respective destinations, I turned into my favorite parking space in front of the Belvedere Hotel.

What then should I behold, but the distinguished owner of the Split Rock Lodge in the Pocono Mountains, Jane Affleck, and her school chum, Ray Darmstadt. Ray had been practicing for the Olympic Ski jumping contests in Norway, on Jane's ski jumps at the lodge. Ray is our greatest hope towards winning the title and cup. Jane was on business to discuss the opening up of three more such centers as Split Rock. She always did have quite a mind for business (where there was recreation around) and I believe she'll really make a go at them.

Jane got into the car and I drove away. Her destination was to see her two cousins Ann and Hibbard Affleck. I pulled up in front of the "Club Rendezvous" where she told me Hibbard was giving a demostration of hypnotism. He was proving the power of the mind over the body. He was on the stage and had just finished hypnotizing Fred Astaire into thinking he was the great dancer, Paul Knepfer. He danced gracefully around with the popular dancing star, Ann Affleck, who owned the nationally acclaimed Affleck Dance Studios. Jane sat down at one of the tables and was soon accompanied by Dick Walters, owner of the Club.

Dick was in keen competition these days with the Latin Quarter, Copa Cabana, and Stork Club, and was hiring talent for his shows from all over the world. The two of them reminisced old times as they had a snack to eat. They were joined by Bob Tutoni, who was now rated as top jockey in the U.S. "The Cat" had bought himself a ranch out west and was now breeding race horses.

The next day I was sent on an excursion to the airport where the dairyman from Wisconsin, Tom Cahillane had just landed in his jet-o-cruiser. He was on business so I drove him to the Borden Milk Company.

It's about time now for you to start asking, "But how could this taxi know these different people?" Here's the answer. Another depression had occurred since 1952 and because of shortages, we were forced to buy some old parts from the junkyard to replace the wornout ones. These parts happened to belong to Hib's Plymouth, Al's Nash, and Ray's Studebaker. They were inserted into my chassis and for this reason, I am able to recognize and tell about the different persons.

The weeks rolled by for me and nothing happened, until one day this athlete of a man jumped into the car and hollered at my driver to get to Madison Square Garden on the double. His name was none other than Al DelBello, the famous Forward for the New York Knickerbockers. He was to play tonight. He told my driver that he was meeting two of the world's geatest painters, Jeanne Siconolfi and Jean Rathgeb, after the game so that they might paint a portrait of him. This painting was just a sideline for Jean Rathgeb, as she was a secretary most of the time. Jeanne Siconolfi, however, had built a name for herself around her paintings and was renowned throughout the world.

Well, that's the way life goes in the 'big city'—new places to go, familiar faces to recall, and life that has so many surprises. I only wish that we automobiles could live as long as human beings, but after all, how can we, when we're driven to death by them.

In concluding my story I'd like to leave you with a well known proverb: "If you are unable to travel the road to success, you can at least refrain from scattering tacks along the road."

Class History

This outstanding graduating class of '52 was first recognized in the year 1948. It had its beginning as a practically all male group. It consisted of Charles Aitcheson, Ray Darmstadt, Alfred DelBello, Alex Markovich and Jean Rathgeb—the one lonely girl. You can imagine how relieved she was when in the freshman year she was joined by Lorraine Appleyard, Ann Affleck, Jane Affleck, Carolyn Cline, Barbara Klein and of course—Hibbard Affleck.

We had our "Carnival" that year and as everyone worked together to make it a success we got better acquainted and already felt as if we'd known each other for a long time. With Mrs. Slear as a Home Room teacher and good friend, our first year in High School was wonderful.

We entered our Sophomore year quite enthusiastically with the thought of being one step closer to becoming high and mighty seniors. That was the year we took a morning off to go to Washington Irving's home at Sunnyside, under the guidance of Mrs. Munro. On our arrival back at school we were quite surprised to discover that we left two of our fellows behind. Charlie Aitcheson and Al DelBello walked into school later on that afternoon after hitch-hiking back form Irvington.

It was that year also that we went to see As You Like It, while Mrs. Murno was endeavoring to make Shakespeare enthusiasts out of us.

The following year, with Mrs. Munro as home room teacher, was hectic and happy as usual. We were joined by Dick Walters in September, by Jack Ryan—better known as Jesse—in February, and again in April by Jeanne Siconolfi. And it was during the course of that year that Mrs. Munro made a valiant but futile attempt to teach us grammar.

Our six-man football team came into being that year and proved itself by coming through with an undefeated season. Our Junior year came to a close with Al DelBello being elected President of the Student Council and all of us breathing a sigh that all plans for the Senior Prom were successfully accomplished.

Then came the greatest moment of our lives—We became Seniors. We were joined by Marilyn Carneol, Eleanor Winters, Frank Ardanowski, Dave Dreier, Paul Knepfer, Pete Wagner, Bob Tutoni, Tom Cahillane, Doris LaPorte and John Wegener. To make things perfect we were introduced to Mr. Jones who was to be our Home Room teacher and, as we later found out, a truly wonderful pal throughout the year.

For quite a while we did our school work to the noise of bulldozers and steam shovels as our field was undergoing a change. It was being enlarged so that we'd be able to play some of our football games at home. But due to unforseen complications it hasn't been completed as of yet.

The outstanding event of the year was the dance we held on Dec. 8th to raise money for the Community Chest. We were so impressed after visiting the different agencies under the Chest that we were determined to do something to help. In order to make the dance bigger and better we asked for and got the aid of the other High Schools of Yonkers to support our plans. Thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Leonard and everyone who took part in the preparations, that night was a success. We raised $148, which we were very proud to give to the Community Chest.

At our traditional Vesper Service Barbara Klein portrayed "Mary" and Ray Darmstadt was chosen for "Joseph."

After a fun filled holiday at Split Rock Lodge everyone got down to work again to start out the new term right. Then the work for the Senior Play began and on April 4th we presented Hutchinson Heyday at the Commerce Auditorium. Thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Muller the play was a success.

Then the realization came that we'd soon be leaving Halsted, not just for the summer but forever.

On June 1, Baccalaureatte Service was held leaving us feeling sadder but much wiser. Then on the evening of June 6, as we marched down the aisle to receive our diplomas, we felt a little scared but yet, with all our experiences in Halsted that taught us how to overcome disappointments and obstacles, to make decisions and to pursue and obtain higher goals, we had a feeling of confidence.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Class of 1952, being of sound body, incorrigible minds and being extremely erudite in all forms of knowledge, do ordain, establish and publish this last will and testament so that all past and forthcoming generations may take heart and try to emulate our infallible characters:

It is thus with great ebulliance that we, because of our sad departure.....will and bequeath the following.

To Mr. Jones: A radio network to find out where the Seniors have disappeared.

To Mrs. Bradley: A set of immovable chairs to be occupied by stationary students.

To Mrs. Moore: A time clock to be punched by each student upon arrival for class.

To Mr. Bassett: A new set of war experiences to relate to the incoming freshmen.

To Dr. Kroner: A personal air-raid shelter to go into during the "take cover" drills.

To Mrs. Landry: Another rest?????.....at Split Rock.

To Miss Karlson: We leave peace and quiet.

To Mrs. Webb: We leave our admiration.

To Mrs. de Napoli: A dumwaiter for her lunch trays.

To Mrs. Muller: A new Senior Class with diaphrams.

To Mr. Spence: A sports class without any absentees.

To Mr. Lohrfink: Knepfer's Sport Shop.

To Mrs. Leonard: A three hour trip to Maine.

To the School: We leave.....(isn't that enough?)

To Lorraine Massello, we leave Carolyn's flirtatious ways.

To Murdo Urquhart, we leave Alex's chemistry marks.

To Ruth Colquhoun, we leave Lorraine's "gift of gab."

To Don Mills, we leave Paul's alibis with a new starting off phrase—"But teacher, I"—.

To Don Coleman, we leave Pete's "Hot Rod" convertible, joined with Dave's auto knowledge.

To Martha Kunkel, we leave Ann's gracefulness.

To Marcia Dreier, we leave Barbara's sweetness and personality.

To Eddie Nauman, we leave Hib's dancing ability.

To Dick Coleman, we leave Jean's typing technique.

To Bea Hubner, we leave Jane's popularity.

To Dick Moore, we leave Charlie's enthusiasm for trig.

To George, we leave the possible honor of becoming the only football player to win the trophy twice.

To John O'Neil, we leave Al's jumping ability, plus a set of basketball shoes installed with springs.

To David Grant, we leave Carol Pennington's library of dictionaries.

To Brenalea Laveson, we leave Marilyn's sophistication.

To Joe Fleischer, we leave a private subway to his home to facilitate the obtaining of his father's car.

Football

When the fall rolled around again, Halsted, under the leadership of Coach John D. Lohrfink, began its second season of six-man football. Considering the fact that only four boys ever played football before, Halsted came through the season fairly well.

Operating mostly out of the T-formation, the team was led by Captain, Al DelBello and George Petti at halves, Frank Ardanowski at quarter, Murdo Urquhart and Jack Ryan at ends, with anchor man, John O'Neil, at center. The team's backer-ups were Ray Darmstadt, Paul Knepfer, Dick Moore, Charles Aitcheson and Dino Guerrieri.

Opening the season under the lights at Prescott Field, Halsted trounced over the Kohut team 25-0. The following game with Cedar Knolls showed what inexperience could do. Halsted was defeated 12-0. Halsted then came up against another experienced club, and was snowed under 36-16 by Daycroft. Getting angry at the last two losses Halsted came back to beat Cedar Knolls 22-0, only to be trounced again by Daycroft 51-18.

Even though the Purple and Gold were disappointed by the number of rain-outs they showed much ability, skill and outstanding sportsmanship throughout the season.

Best of luck in the future
George Petti

Basketball

Playing our home games at either Commerce or Andrus courts, Coach "Bud" Lohrfink's five turned in a record for the season that would be pleasing to most coaches. With only one cager returning from the starting five of last year's team, Halsted had a "green" bunch of boys ranging in all heights. The backboards were left to the three taller boys, Ed Nauman at 6 ft., 2 inch., Murdo Urquhart at 6 ft., 1 in., and Al DelBello at an even 6 ft. The chasing and fast breaks were done by the small but faster boys, Frank Ardanowski, and George Petti. The boys who did almost as much work, with a little less glory were the subs, Jack Ryan, John O'Neil, Don Mills, Dick Moore, Hibbard Affleck, and Paul Knepfer. Another small but very fast boy, Bob Tutoni, arrived at Halsted in the middle of the season and was a great asset even with his lateness.

The spirit of cooperation and partnership which Halsted has shown throughout the season on and off the court is something long to be remembered.

Baseball

As far as predicting the outcome of the '52 season, it is almost impossible at this date, but if returning lettermen have anything to do with it, Halsted stands a better than average chance on turning in a good record. Because of the number of under-classmen joining the team this year, Coach Lohrfink's job may be a little more difficult than in previous years but if he does his usual good job, a good record can be almost certain.

The following lettermen will return; Paul Knepfer, Al DelBello, Ray Darmstadt, Jack Ryan, Alex Markovich, Ed Nauman, John O'Neil, Dick Moore, and George Petti. The newcomers are: Bob Tutoni, Murdo Urquhart, Don Coleman, and Don Mills.

Good Luck Men!

Cheering Squad

The Halsted cheering squad, under the leadership of Lorraine Appleyard, Capt., and Carolyn Cline, Co-Capt., cheered at all football and basketball games during the year.

Cheerleaders during football season were: Lorraine Appleyard, Carolyn Cline, Jean Rathgeb, Beatrice Hubner, Barbara Klein, Martha Kunkel, Marcia Dreier, and Jean Siconolfi.

Cheerleaders during the basketball season were: Lorraine Appleyard, Carolyn Cline, Beatrice Hubner, Barbara Klein, Martha Kunkel, and Marcia Dreier.

Those of us who will be leaving the squad in June, sincerely hope that the remaining girls will do their utmost to keep the standards which make a cheering squad the leading morale booster in the field of sports.

Girls Sports

The third year of the Girls' Athletic Committee has been quite successful. Under the direction of Mr. Spence, our coach, we have had much enthusiasm in softball, archery, volley ball and basketball. The high school girls took part in the sport of their choice.

The girls on the Basketball Varsity Team were: Lorraine Appleyard, Barbara Klein, Carolyn Cline, Jean Rathgeb, Jane Affleck, Ann Affleck, Marcia Dreier, Eleanor Winters, and Carol Pennington.

GUESS WHO

WE THREE

To Mr. Samuel Jones who guided us in the publication of our Yearbook.

To Mrs. Anne deNapoli, ever understanding and always a friend.

To Mr. Hunt Turner for his willing and helpful advice.

To Mr. Carl Babiar, our photographer, for his everready assistance.

To the Gingko Leaf Staff whose untiring effort continuously helped me.

To our patrons and advertisers whose support we greatly appreciate.

To all others who helped with our Yearbook.

I give my grateful thanks and hope this book will be a link to our everlasting friendship throughout the years.

Sincerely,
